

Marriage as Ministry:

Applying Biblical Principles to make a Sacred Marriage

What does it look like to live out the Fruits of the Spirit in marriage? Galatians 5 sets out a daunting list—love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, and more! This workshop combines current relationship research with God’s timeless principles about the people He is shaping us into. Could it be that marriage is a tool He uses to grow these qualities in us? Could it be that this work is our most precious and important calling? Expect to grapple with these questions, learn and practice new relationship tools, and laugh and grow alongside your spouse during this interactive workshop.

Join us for this two part fun and interactive workshop for couples on:
