Seeking Silent Auction Items. Will You Help Us?

Preparations are underway for the 2017 Anchorpoint Counseling Ministry (ACM) Golf Classic. This tournament will take place on September 15 at Olde Stonewall Golf Club. The Golf Classic raises crucially needed funds and awareness for Anchorpoint's services. Guests will have an opportunity to win gifts such as wine baskets, restaurant gift cards, services, entertainment, travel, golf items, electronic items, sporting equipment and more. Proceeds from this event benefit those who are going through difficult transitions to receive professional counseling, support group therapy, tutor/mentoring and educational support.

"I am living in temporary housing because of violence in my former home. My three children are having a hard time with their new home situation and are failing classes in school."

"I've been raising my grandson ever since his mother died of a drug overdose. I never expected to be doing this at my age."

"I am here because my closest support has died."

"My husband killed himself eight weeks ago and my daughter has been very withdrawn. I don't know how to help her."

"I want my daughter to build confidence. She is so anxious about school that she often cries and worries so much."

"My anger has destroyed all of my relationships. I need help."

Anchorpoint Counseling Ministry, a nonprofit (25-1196957), established in 1966, provides professional mental health counseling services, support and educational groups, tutoring and parent education. Please consider donating a gift for the Silent Auction. Not only will you have the satisfaction of knowing that you are helping children and families in your community but we will acknowledge you through event messaging.

We would appreciate your silent auction donations by August 15 or sooner.

Thank you for your consideration!
